

Ático Industrial

We present a multidisciplinary space located in the heart of Seville, in front of the Giralda. A location made up of three interconnected spaces which allow for different environments to be experienced within the same event.

Ático Industrial is a new space in Seville available to host small, unique, and distinctive events. It is suitable for showrooms, meetings, advertising campaigns, fashion-related events, and photography.

With a capacity of 70 people for a cocktail party, it is the ideal space for intimate and special events.
