INSTITUTO HISPANO-CUBANO
de HISTORIA y ARTE

We find ourselves in a space full of history, a place that has been a convent, Institute of Hispanic-Cuban Studies, lodging for Santa Teresa on her first trip to Seville, and even a hermitage of the Virgin to whom sailors entrusted themselves before leaving for the Indies.

The building, with its post-Herrerian architecture featuring elegant and severe lines enlivened by Baroque details, was declared an artistic and historical monument.

Museo Iberoamericano has spacious rooms with high ceilings and excellent lighting, perfect for hosting any kind of events, from a business meeting to any social or family event.

Futhermore, it has an outdoor patio in front of the main entrance where you can enjoy a wonderful cocktail while experiencing the marvelous weather of our city.
