Casa Palacio Barbero

Located in the monumental area of Seville's old town, this house can host events year-round, thanks to a system that allows its courtyards to be closed off and isolated from the outside when necessary.

Casa Palacio Barbero de Sevilla offers the exclusivity of unique architecture, showcasing its original structures from the 16th century. The Palace is organized around a classic covered main courtyard, an adjoining lounge with a capacity for about 40 people, and a second uncovered courtyard where we highlight the 2nd-century Roman mosaic.

Depending on the number of guests, the palace is configured by opening and closing the different rooms. It is one of the most artistic palaces in the Andalusian capital, preserving the characteristic dependencies of a stately home.
