Secret Garden House

17th-century house located in the heart of the historic center of Seville. This location is one of the few palace houses in Seville that has retained all of its primitive character, preserving its Andalusian essence. The house is composed of interconnected lounges, a beautiful courtyard, a porticoed patio with columns of pink marble, and a majestic staircase.

This almost secret location, due to its location in the historic center of Seville, is highly recommended to host any type of event, as its possibilities and adaptability are a hallmark of the house.

In addition to other smaller courtyards, Secret Garden House features an extensive garden accessed through a portico of columns in the same style as the main courtyard.
